Hope Woman Named Special Instructor

CONWAY — Dr. Silas D. Snow, president of State College of Arkansas, has announced the appointment of Mrs. Jon Guthrie as an instructor in special education for the 1969-70 school year.

Mrs. Guthrie also will be supervisor of special education for the Teachers Corps Interns at SCA.

A 1962 graduate of Hope High School, she is a 1966 graduate of Hendrix College and received a masters degree in special education from SCA in 1967.

She taught in the Brevard County (Florida) public schools in 1967-68, and was a team leader in the Teachers Corps program at SCA last summer.

Mrs. Guthrie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.M. Reinhardt of Hope.

Stock Market Subject at Rotary Meet

In a discussion of the Stock Market last Friday at the Town and Country before the Hope Rotary Club, Paul Klipsch was not too optimistic because of the Bear Market aspect of the current financial trend.

He distributed copies of the "Klipsch One-Page Economics Book" and answered questions posed by various men present. It soon became apparent that the U.S. is "off the gold standard," a situation that has existed for some time.

Before the program, Dick Moore made some announcements regarding the Booster Club, and President Benny Coleman brought up some other club business matters.

Visiting Rotarians were Newt Daniels of Prescott and Tom Callan of Nashville. Other guests were Jim Ware of Texarkana, T.E. Martin of Houston and Wayne Bailey.

Space Head Says Mars Can Wait

By JOHN BECKLER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of the House Space Committee said today the United States should not commit itself at this time to a landing on Mars.

Rep. George P. Miller, D-Calif., said a decision about a manned trip to Mars should be delayed for 5 to 10 years while new technology is developed and more experience is gained in space flight.

By that time, he said, there is a chance Russia will join the United States in making a Mars flight an international expedition.

tim's head was covered with a cloth.

The latest victims were identified as Leno A. LaBianca, 44, reportedly owner of a small local supermarket chain, and his wife Rosemary, 38. Police said their bodies were discovered in nightclothes Sunday night by Mrs. LaBianca's son by a previous marriage, Frank Struthers, 14.

Houchin said the two were "stabbed numerous times and their throats were slit."

McCaulley said the word "death" was written in an undisclosed substance on the living room wall. Other officers earlier said the words "death to pigs" were scrawled in blood on a refrigerator door.

At Miss Tate's plush Bel Air home, the word "pig" was written in blood on the front door. The LaBianca residence is about five miles from Bel Air.

Earlier, police said they were seeking a man whose name "came up in conversation" with a 19-year-old caretaker arrested in a guest cottage behind Miss Tate's $200,000 home when the bodies were found.

Slim, tousele-haired William Garretson was booked on suspicion of murder, but Detective Lt. Robert Helder said physical evidence to link him to the crime had been found.

Garretson was given a lie detector test Sunday. Sgt. Jesse Buckles said homicide detectives were "not entirely satisfied" with his answers.

An autopsy showed that Miss Tate, 26, honey-blond wife of film director Roman Polanski, died of multiple stab wounds of the back and chest. She was eight months pregnant with a child which the autopsy showed was a boy.

Also killed were:

- Jay Sebring, 26, hair stylist and former boyfriend of Miss Tate, dead of stab wounds in the back.
- Steven Parent, 18, of suburban El Monte, apparently a friend of Garretson, dead of multiple gunshot wounds in the chest.

The bodies, strewn about the estate in fashionable Benedict Canyon, were found by a maid who ran down the road screaming: "There's bodies and blood all over the place."

Noguchi said the victims' wounds would not have caused instant death.

Miss Folger, clad in a nightgown, was sprawled on the lawn. About 100 feet away lay Frykowski, shot in the back. Parent sat at the wheel of his car, its transmission set in drive and the brake released.

"We have to assume there was an attempt to escape, when we find the bodies the way we did," said Helder.

One of the clues in the case came out a blank. A red Ferrari sports car, missing from Miss Tate's home, and suspected to have been stolen by the killer, turned up at a repair shop where police said a member of the household left it earlier in the week.

Miss Tate's grief-stricken husband arrived in Los Angeles Sunday and went into seclusion. Officers said they would not be able to question the distraught Polanski immediately.

Friends said news of the slayings reached him at a dinner party in a London apartment where moments before the guests had been discussing the death of a friend.

Polanski had remarked: "Eeny, meeny, miney, mo, Who will be the next to go?" Then the phone rang, the message same.

Farther south near the Cambodian border, a U.S. helicopter pilot spotted a group of enemy soldiers sitting along a trail. Military sources said the men "put down their guns and put their hands up" when helicopter gunships hovered over them, but the men fled into the jungle when U.S. ground units moved in.

Air and artillery strikes were ordered, and then South Vietnamese troops made a ground sweep.

The new system he proposes, Nixon told Congress, will lessen red tape, and bitterly resented "welfare snooping" and make federal payments on the basis of certification of income, with spot checks to prevent abuses.

Nixon said he was outlining his conclusions to provide a "coherent, fresh approach to welfare, manpower training and revenue sharing."

Specific legislative proposals will be sent to Congress after the summer recess by the secretary of health, education and welfare, Nixon said. Nixon is calling for an end to the present welfare system and the aid to families with dependent children program, adopting in its place a new family assistance program.

Weather Just Replay of Past Week

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Arkansas' weather picture looks as though it's going to be a replay of the past week — hot temperatures and no rain.

The outlook for Tuesday calls for fair to partly cloudy skies, hot sultry temperatures and a continuation of the dry spell, the U.S. Weather Bureau said today.

Temperatures Sunday were some eight to 15 degrees lower than the previous day due to a flow of cooler air. The high was 98 at Texarkana.

A frontal boundary marking the edge of cooler air lies stationary across Northeast Texas and North Louisiana. Scattered showers and thundershowers are occurring south of the frontal zone.

As the high pressure area receded to the east today, tropical air moved into Arkansas on the heels of a warm front. By Tuesday all but the northeast sections of the state will lie under the influence of the warm moist air.

Low tonight is expected to be in the 60s in the north and in the 70s in the south portion of the state. Overnight lows included 59 at Fayetteville, 62 at Harrison, 64 at Fort Smith and Memphis, 65 at Jonesboro and Little Rock, 66 at Pine Bluff, 67 at El Dorado and 73 at Texarkana.

No rainfall was recorded during the 24-hour period ended at 7 a.m. today.

lowed by a Texas-sized party in the Astro dome.

In the weeks that follow they'll be welcomed in many cities in the United States and will appear before Congress. There also is talk of a world tour.

The moonmen got a preview of what lies ahead when they were cheered and mobbed by about 300 space workers as they emerged from quarantine Sunday night.

All three were smiling and waving as they walked through a door that had been unsealed minutes before.

Each took a separate chauffeured auto home. The astronauts had seen their families almost daily since being isolated, but only through a thick glass window in the lunar receiving lab. They last were home July 7, nine days before their launching from Cape Kennedy.

The 20 other persons in the quarantine also were released Sunday night and many were greeted by their families. Included was one woman, Miss Heather Owens, 23, a technician who was placed in the isolation ward last week after accidentally being exposed to moon dust in another part of the lab.

The astronauts were cleared to leave the chamber after Dr. Charles A. Berry and three other Manned Spacecraft Center officials presented data Sunday to an Atlanta, Ga., meeting of the Inter-Agency Committee on Back Contamination.

OEO Shifting Personnel From County

In an effort to initiate a recently funded program, Food Production, the Southwest-Ark. Development Council is shifting some of its most dedicated and affluent workers to propell the new program.

In Hempstead County, the NSC Director, Mrs. Georgia Clark, is being transferred to the new program as Food Production Counselor. Director Alvin Brannon stated that this change has been made due to Mrs. Clark's exceptional rapore that she has established with the residents of Hempstead County, and her ability to mobilize the efforts of the poor in a progressive manner. Deputy Director Thomas Hudman said that similar changes in personnel were taking place in other counties where personnel with special talents were needed to perform a special task.

The new project is designed to mobilize the efforts of those people with insufficient income, to produce food to supplement their existing income by way of sales or consumption of products produced.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Television scripts in the coming season often will seem to have been written right off the headlines.

The medical shows will string their stories around surgical and research advances and ethical problems arising from organ transplants.

Space exploration will be handled in down-to-earth fashion. One series will have a show about long-distance diagnosis and treatment of an astronaut who becomes ill in space.

War, peace, student unrest, drugs and new freedoms, racial confrontation, and, of course, the generation gap will continue to be up front among popular treatments.

Formula drama is essential for the mass production that supplies television, but in content and approach, it seems to have moved far away from the predictable pace of such old-time favorites as "Perry Mason" and his win-a-week cases. Even the sudsy quality of the old Kildare and Casey medical shows will be artfully concealed if not eliminated.

Jo Swerling Jr., producer of the eight episodes about a legal firm which will constitute one-third of the shows in NBC's "The Bold Ones," has scripts built around contemporary controversy that include the effect of recent Supreme Court decisions on law enforcement, the law-and-order issue, a lawyer's responsibility to his client, and capital punishment.

But Swerling emphasized that the first consideration is entertainment: "We are not going in for tracts and editorializing although we can inspect pros and cons."

That is the season's attitude, because preachy shows prove to be weak in the ratings.

BE WARY OF MARRIED MEN BEARING GIFTS

Dear Helen: A while back a girl told about a married man who brought her all kinds of gifts and wouldn't take them back.

Well, my boss is unhappily married, and he talks to me about it. I'm kind of a shoulder to cry on, and he appreciates this, so he brings me presents occasionally. The last was a lovely necklace. I know it wasn't exactly cheap!

I tell him I shouldn't accept these things, and he says they're in grateful appreciation of moral support — he has no one else to talk to. Our lunches and dinners are very proper. All he does is hold my hand.

I like him a lot. Is there any harm in this? — UNCERTAIN
Dear Uncertain: I think you're headed for IMMORAL support. Married men bearing gifts don't usually remain platonic. — H.
Dear Helen: My wife and I have been married seven weeks, but we were only together 11 days. Four of those days were happy. Then she lied to me, and I caught her at it. I began to believe those things they said

No I can't trust her, so I have filed for divorce, even though I love her more than I ever loved another woman.

There was some mutual slapping around when we were having words, and she is going to ask for alimony. No matter if 3000 doctors say the baby is mine, I won't believe it. Not from a woman who lied to me twice in 11 days! — L.L.

Dear L: I suppose you didn't tell your wife Lie One in those 11 days. Or perhaps she didn't ask snoopy questions. Tell me, what kind of a third-degree did you put her through?

If you love her, for Pete's sake, stop bugging her about the past, and get on with what may yet be a good marriage, once you learn to trust. — H.

Dear Helen: To be alone and never lonely is something I'm sure everyone dreams of sooner or later. When I married the first time I was sure my loneliness was over, but I soon found out my husband preferred his bottle to me. Even my three babies couldn't keep the long hours filled.

I left him a year ago because his cruelty was too much for the children and I to bear. But the loneliness got worse and sometimes I thought even his drunken rages would be better than the empty hours.

man I had known most of my life. He, too, had been unhappily married. Our loneliness seemed to draw us together.
It was the beginning of a new and beautiful life for us both. Because marriage had hurt us deeply, we feared it. But by living together, we learned to trust again. Our relationship caused a lot of talk, and I hadn't been easy to face people who consider us sinners, but our love has grown deeper and stronger. My kids adore him, and his two love me. We've bought a home and we will be married shortly. Our future is bright!
Loneliness? Would you believe I'm in love with a long distance truck driver? The hours he is gone are long, but I have peace and contentment, for I know he'll be back.

Pro Football Ponders Over Buffalo Bills

By ROBERT MOORE

Associated Press Sports Writer

The rest of pro football, particularly the world champion New York Jets, had double reason today to pause and ponder over the Buffalo Bills, who won only a single game last season.

The Bills came up with two big accomplishments over the weekend. They stunned the Vince Lombardi-coached Washington Redskins 21-17 Friday night.

Twenty-four hours later, the Bills signed O.J. Simpson, the prize catch from the 1968 college ranks.

If the Bills can beat the Redskins without Simpson, what will they be able to do with the former Southern California All-America flash running in their backfield? With Simpson, do the Bills pose as a serious threat to the Jets' supremacy in the American League?

It's only the exhibition season, of course, and only time will provide the answers to these questions.

The Jets provided the other major surprise of the weekend exhibition action. They bowed to the St. Louis Cardinals in St. Louis Saturday night 13-6, and for the second straight game Joe Namath failed to complete a touchdown pass.

Two games were played Sunday. The Boston Patriots beat the Cincinnati Bengals at Bowling Green, Ohio, 21-13, and the Cleveland Browns outscored the San Francisco 49ers at Seattle 24-19.

Other Saturday night exhibitions saw Baltimore stop the Oakland Raiders 34-30, San Diego edge the New Orleans Saints 10-7, Atlanta whip Philadelphia 13-7, Kansas City clobber Detroit 38-13, Chicago down Miami 16-10, Green Bay nip the New York Giants 22-21 and the Minnesota Vikings romp over Denver 28-6.

In addition to Buffalo's upset of the Redskins, the Rams tripped the Dallas Cowboys in Los Angeles Friday night 24-17. Cleveland capitalized on 49ers errors for two touchdowns in 69 seconds in the third period and overcame a nine-point deficit. On one occasion, the Browns took over on downs at the 49er seven-yard line where Tommy Davis, back to punt, had to fall on the ball after a bad pass from center. Charles Leigh scored from the one.

The ensuing kickoff was touched by three 49ers before Cleveland's Tom Butler got it at the 49er six. Bo Scott scored two plays later from a yard out to put the Browns ahead.

Boston quarterback Mike Talfer tossed two touchdowns passes in the first half that set the stage for the Patriots' conquest of the Bengals. Talfer hit Charlie Frazier with an eight-yarder and found Sid Blanks with a 22-yard scoring pitch.

Against the Cardinals, Namath played the first half and completed only six of 18 passes. The Jets' only points were 24 and 45-yard field goals by Jim Turner. The Cards' scores came on a 24-yard pass from Charley Johnson to Jackie Smith and field goals of 49 and 32 yards by Jim Bakken.

Baltimore's Johnny Unitas completed 12 of 18 passes for 150 yards and one touchdown against the Raiders and Lenny Lyles turned a 50-yard pass interception into another Colt touchdown.

Kieth Lincoln raced four yards for a touchdown on the final quarter's first play to give San Diego its victory over the Saints. Atlanta tripped the Eagles on field goals by Bob Etter and Bob Berry's touchdown

Cards Come Back to Beat Giants

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer

Don Sutton was in a rut but finally climbed out after only four years of trying. That means there's still hope for the Atlanta Braves and Philadelphia Phillies, who are on distressing treadmills of their own.

Sutton, the Los Angeles Dodger right-hander who had lost 13 consecutive decisions to Chicago, beat the Cubs for the first time in his big league career Sunday, with reliever Pete Mikkelsen nailing down a 4-2 decision.

The Braves, battling to stay in the thick of the five-team National League West Division race, dropped a 3-0 decision to New York—their sixth loss in the last seven starts against the Mets in less than two weeks.

The Phillies, battling to finish out the season in the National League East Division, absorbed another thumping from Cincinnati, losing 10-0. Those are the same Reds who beat Philadelphia 12-5 on Friday and 19-17 a week ago Sunday. For the season, the Phillies lead reads two games won and nine lost against Cincinnati.

In other National League games Sunday, St. Louis clipped San Francisco 7-4, Pittsburgh took a doubleheader from San Diego 7-5 and 8-6 and Houston defeated Montreal 3-1.

In the American League, Baltimore edged Minnesota 2-0, Detroit thumped Chicago 8-2, California drubbed Boston 9-1, Washington tripped Seattle 7-5, New York downed Oakland 5-1 and Cleveland rapped Kansas City 8-1.

Sutton was leading 2-1 when he was lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth. The Dodgers rallied for two runs in that inning and needed the cushion when the Cubs came back to score a run and load the bases against Jim Brewer.

Then Mikkelsen came in and pitched out of the jam by getting the next two batters in ground balls.

Tommie Agee cracked three hits, including his 19th homer, and Nolan Ryan, Don Cardwell and Tug McGraw combined for the five-hitter as the Mets blanked the Braves.

Agee's homer was the only run of the game until he started a two-run rally with a double in the ninth. The loss shoved the Braves 2½ games off Cincinnati's pace in the West.

The Reds got a three-hitter from Gary Nolan, who hurled six perfect innings before Larry Hise opened the seventh with a single.

Johnny Bench drove in four runs with a single and a three-run homer as the heavy-hitting Reds won their fourth straight and 12th in the last 14 starts.

Mike Shannon hammered a home run in the ninth inning, tying the game for St. Louis and then the Cards scored three more runs to beat the Giants.

Winning pitcher Jim Grant singled home Julian Javier with the winning run and Lou Brock's double and a sacrifice fly chased two more runs home.

Jose Pagan ripped a home run in each game as the Pirates swept San Diego.

Pagan's first-game shot shattered a tie and then he added a key triple in a three-run ninth inning that clinched it.

Manny Sanguillen had four hits in the opener.

In the nightcap, Pagan and Roberto Clemente both tagged two-run homers.

Houston's Denny Lemaster scattered nine hits and beat Montreal for the fourth time this season, Gary Sutherland homered for the Expos.

sparked the West to a 10-point lead during a seven-minute period in the first half when the second units of both teams were in the game. His 11-point flurry gave the West a 34-24 half-time edge.

The East, led by 6-foot-11 Caldwell Jones of Desha Central with 18 points, rallied to within two points at 55-53 with 4:53 left in the third period.

However, West Coach Jim Rackley of Mena sent Vesi back into the game and the West spurred to a 62-53 lead.

O.J. Comes to Terms With Bills

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP)

The phone jangled in the first-floor apartment of the two-story stone house that Buffalo Coach John Rauch uses as his office at the Bills' training quarters on the Niagara University campus.

"Coach," said the voice, "O. J. wants to talk to you."

"The first impression you get," said Rauch, "is that it's some practical joker."

And so Rauch held onto the phone with some trepidation, while at the other end of the country, in San Diego, the phone changed hands.

"Coach," said the new voice, "I need some time to clear up a couple of personal things. But I think I can be in training camp on Tuesday."

Rauch recognized the voice as belonging to O. J. but admitted he still was puzzled, so he asked one more question:

"Have you worked out your contract?"

"Yes," said O. J. "everything's been worked out."

And that's how, at 6:20 p.m. Saturday evening, Rauch learned he was the coach of O. J. Simpson, pro football's highest priced rookie since the merger of the American and National Football Leagues in 1966.

Rauch had been unaware of the last set of negotiations that led to the signing of the Heisman Trophy-winning running back. Owner Ralph Wilson had not told him of the talks, simply because he did not believe they would lead to a quick settlement.

But they did, Simpson signing a four-year, no-cut contract that the Bills flatly stated will pay the 6-foot-2, 204-pound Southern California All-American "more than any rookie has been paid since the merger."

That would probably put Simpson in the $300,000-$350,000 neighborhood, and while neither Wilson nor Rauch is about to disclose the actual terms of the pact, Rauch was more than willing to discuss his immediate plans for Simpson when he arrives in camp.

"Simpson will play in our pre-season game at Detroit Friday night," said Rauch, "if we have to work him 24 hours a day—which we probably will have to. He'll be starting from scratch and will have to catch up from what time has been lost."

Rauch pointedly put down any speculation that Simpson had clinched a starting berth merely by signing and dealt frankly with the possibility of any form of resentment from the veterans, some of whom undoubtedly will be playing for less money than Simpson.

Tovar Strikes But So Does Billy Martin

By MIKE RECHT

Associated Press Sports Writer

Cesar Tovar has struck again

—and so has Billy Martin.

Tovar, making a season of breaking up no-hitters in the ninth inning by Baltimore pitchers, did it again Sunday with a line hit opening the ninth against Mike Cuellar, although the Orioles still beat the Minnesota Twins 2-0.

But the hit couldn't have been as painful to Cuellar as those Twins' manager Billy Martin laid on Dave Boswell, one of his own hurlers.

Martin disclosed after the defeat that he had knocked out Boswell in a fight in Detroit Wednesday after Boswell had socked and kicked Twins' outfielder Bob Allison.

The 20 stitches Boswell suffered in the fight might well hurt the Twins as much because the right-hander, with a 12-9 record, was told by Martin not to report to the park in Baltimore so as not to embarrass him because of the condition of his face.

Despite the defeat, the Twins maintained their 1½-game lead in the West Division of the American League over Oakland as the New York Yankees laced into the A's with four homers for a 5-1 victory.

They weren't the only A.L. clubs hitting Sunday as Detroit clobbered the Chicago White Sox 8-2, California bombarded Boston 9-1, Cleveland hammered Kansas City 8-1 and Washington outlasted Seattle 7-5.

In the National League, Cincinnati blasted Philadelphia 10-0, the New York Mets beat Atlanta 3-0, Los Angeles tripped the Chicago Cubs 4-2, Pittsburgh ousted San Diego 7-5 and 8-6, St. Louis trimmed San Francisco 7-4 and Houston defeated Montreal 3-1.

Tovar's shot into left field on a 0-1 pitch went over the outstretched glove of shortstop Mark Belanger. Cuellar, 15-9, then closed out the game for his fifth consecutive victory and Baltimore's sixth in a row.

Jim Perry, 13-5, had a personal eight-game winning streak ended although he gave only four hits in seven innings. But two of them were Boog Powell's 31st homer in the fourth inning and Elrod Hendricks' eighth in the seventh.

Martin explained after the fight that he was coming to the rescue of Allison outside a restaurant. Allison had been trying to calm down Boswell, who was angry over coach Art Fowler's report that Boswell had not run his normal 18-to-20 laps before Wednesday night's game in Detroit.

The Yankees, meanwhile, unloaded against Oakland while A's slugger Reggie Jackson stretched his homerless string to 47 at bats, his longest barren stretch of the season.

After Roy White broke a 1-1 deadlock with a homer in the fifth for New York, Bobby Murcer, Thurman Munson and Gene Michael hit successive homers in the sixth on five pitches. Fritz Peterson, 12-12, yielded six hits for the victory, the eighth in nine games for the Yankees.

The A's also lost Rick Monday for from four to six weeks when he suffered a fractured hand when hit by a pitch.

Mickey Lolich, 15-5, was backed by a 14-hit Detroit attack, including Norm Cash's homer, and shacked the White Sox on four hits.

Bill Voss had three hits and drove in four runs as California jumped on Jim Lonborg, 7-5, Tom Murphy, 7-11, and Ken Tatum stopped the Red Sox.

Duke Sims, Tony Horton, Ken Harrelson and Jose Cardenal belted homers for Cleveland, time, president of the Hope Baseball Leagues, holds the gavel that was presented to him by the Association.

The Hope Pony League 15-year old all stars captured the District 3 Baseball title recently and brought home a trophy. The trophy is now on display at the Anderson-Frazier Insurance Co. office.

The Hope team breezed through the double-elimination District Tournament undefeated by beating Malvern 11 to 2, Nashville 12 to 5, and giving Malvern its second defeat 7 to 1.

In the single-elimination State Tournament held at Paragould, the All-Stars were defeated in their first outing by a strong Burns Park team of North Little Rock. This Burns Park team proved to be the best in the state, winning the state title easily, and advanced to the 2nd round of play in the regional tournament being held in Ft. Smith this week.

These Hope players are to be commended for their playing ability and sportsmanship shown in this sport. The team is composed of the 15 outstanding players from the Hope Pony League, which consists of 6 teams, and they were selected by the coaches of these teams.

Don Worthy, Dub Pinagar, and Jim Rowland served as manager and coaches of this all star team and are to be congratulated for putting together a District winner.

Barnett Gets Revenge Over
Sug Wilson

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — It was sweet revenge Sunday when Gerald Barnett of Little Rock, who defeated Sug Wilson 1 up in the state match play golf tournament at the Hot Springs Country Club.

Wilson recently defeated Barnett in the state medalist golf tournament, also at Hot Springs.

Barnett had Wilson down five after the first 12 holes but the medalist winner was only one down at the end of 35 holes. Both players parred the 35th hole.

making it easy for Sam McDowell, 13-10, who didn't give a hit until the sixth inning and finished with a three-hitter, striking out 14.

Washington dissipated a three-run triple by Lee Maye and then came from behind on Ed Stroud's pinch-hit, tying triple in the eighth and Paul Casanova's single for the lead run.

West Cagers, East Gridders Post Wins

LITTLE ROCK (AP) —

The East, behind linebacker Stan Todd of Lonoke, scored its eighth straight victory in the Arkansas High School All-Star football game Saturday night after a second-teamer had led the West to victory in the All-Star basketball game.

Todd sprinted 19 yards with a fumble late in the first half to give the east a 13-0 lead and then blunted a West threat late in the game with a pass interception as the East held on for a 13-7 victory.

In basketball, Randy Vest of North Little Rock poured in 24 points, including seven after the East narrowed the lead to two points in the third period, to give the West an 88-76 triumph.

The East got its first touchdown passes in 13:45 remaining in the second quarter when Mike New of Conway skirted right end from the four, Sammy McGilley of Bald Knob set it up by recovering a West fumble at the four.

Todd's alertness on another West fumble got the other touchdown.

The West drove 60 yards in seven plays with less than 10 minutes remaining with Larry Eddy of Magnolia scoring from the one.

Trailing 13-7, the West started a final drive from its own 27 with less than four minutes remaining.

Jim Irwin of Springdale connected with Connell Williams of Malvern on a 22-yard pass to the East 35 but on the next play Todd intercepted a sideline pass to halt the threat.

Todd, who kicked the extra point, barely missed on a 41-yard field goal try late in the first half.

Vest, chosen the most valuable player in the basketball game, scored from the one.

Against the Cardinals, Namath played the first half and completed only six of 18 passes. The Jets' only points were 24 and 45-yard field goals by Jim Turner. The Cards' scores came on a 24-yard pass from Charley Johnson to Jackie Smith and field goals of 49 and 32 yards by Jim Bakken.

Baltimore's Johnny Unitas completed 12 of 18 passes for 150 yards and one touchdown against the Raiders and Lenny Lyles turned a 50-yard pass interception into another Colt touchdown.

Kieth Lincoln raced four yards for a touchdown on the final quarter's first play to give San Diego its victory over the Saints. Atlanta tripped the Eagles on field goals by Bob Etter and Bob Berry's touchdown scored from the one.

In addition to Buffalo's upset of the Redskins, the Rams tripped the Dallas Cowboys in Los Angeles Friday night 24-17. Cleveland capitalized on 49ers errors for two touchdowns in 69 seconds in the third period and overcame a nine-point deficit. On one occasion, the Browns took over on downs at the 49er seven-yard line where Tommy Davis, back to punt, had to fall on the ball after a bad pass from center. Charles Leigh scored from the one.

The ensuing kickoff was touched by three 49ers before Cleveland's Tom Butler got it at the 49er six. Bo Scott scored two plays later from a yard out to put the Browns ahead.

Boston quarterback Mike Talfer tossed two touchdowns passes in the first half that set the stage for the Patriots' conquest of the Bengals. Talfer hit Charlie Frazier with an eight-yarder and found Sid Blanks with a 22-yard scoring pitch.

Against the Cardinals, Namath played the first half and completed only six of 18 passes. The Jets' only points were 24 and 45-yard field goals by Jim Turner. The Cards' scores came on a 24-yard pass from Charley Johnson to Jackie Smith and field

British Given Little Chance Against U.S.

By LARRY PALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer
C L E V E L A N D (AP) — There's sort of a fractured Golden Rule governing Britain's play in today's final matches of the 41st Wightman Cup tennis tournament.

It goes something like this: "Let's try to do unto them what they did unto us."

And although Great Britain's chances of overcoming the United States' 3-1 advantage in the first four matches were slim, hope was mustered by looking back to the 1966 event. That was when the U.S. overcame the same deficit to win the best-of-7 competition 4-3.

The sister combination of Nell Truman and Mrs. Christine Truman Janes salvaged a come-from-behind doubles victory over Mrs. Mary Ann Elsel Curtis and Valeria Ziegenfuss Sunday 1-6, 6-3, 6-4.

Their triumph followed an 8-6, 6-0 win by 20-year-old Peaches Bartkowicz over 28-year-old Mrs. Janes in a singles match which gave the U.S. a seemingly insurmountable 3-0 edge. Saturday, America's Julie Heldman beat Virginia Wade and Nancy Richey downed Winnie Shaw of Great Britain.

The Truman-Janes team brought Britain its seventh win in the 41-year-old tournament when they won the deciding match in a 4-3 deficit of the U.S. last year at Wimbledon in London.

Miss Wade, 24, Britain's top player, was the first who had to take up today's challenge. A singles loss to Miss Richey, America's No. 1 player, would give the Wightman Cup back to the U.S.

Britain's Winnie Shaw, who is from Glasgow, Scotland, was to meet Miss Heldman in a singles match and the final doubles match was to pit Miss Richey and Miss Bartkowicz against Miss Wade and Miss Shaw.

Lolich Unhappy Over Firing of John Sain

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — Mickey Lolich had just fired a four-hit 8-2 victory over the Chicago White Sox for his 15th victory of the season, but Detroit's hero of the 1968 World Series was unhappy.

Lolich's dilemma stemmed from the firing of pitching coach Johnny Sain earlier in the day by Tiger vice president Jim Campbell.

Sain, one of the highest paid pitching coaches in the business at an estimated $30,000 a year, had voiced dissatisfaction last week by saying, "When my advice isn't used and there are no results from what I'm doing there, then I figure it's time to leave."

Campbell met with Sain Sunday morning and, after a brief chat, Sain was fired.

Lolich said: "Last year I won 17 games and three more in the World Series. This year, I've won 15 so far. In 1967, I had lost 10 straight before Sain straightened me out and then I won nine of my last 10 games. I would say John Sain has had quite an influence on my career."

Sain has shown results as a coach, but it's his methods of coaching which are not accepted by the establishment.

The accepted theory for training pitchers is to have them run daily and pitch batting practice at certain times. Sain refuses to allow his pitcher to run and would rather have them throw under his guidance than in batting practice.

Namath Again Will Be a Marked Man

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. (AP) — When Pete Rozelle clasped Joe Namath's hand three weeks ago in New York, strong men shook with envy in nine other cities.

But hope springs eternal in the barrel chests of American Football League defensive line-men. And every one of them will be trying harder than ever this season to get within hand-shake—or headlock—range of the New York Jets' gifted quarterback.

Namath, who ended a five-week retirement on June 18, bowing to Commissioner Rozelle's edict that he sell his interest in a controversial New York nightspot, will be a marked man again when the Super Bowl champs launch their AFL title defense at Buffalo next month.

Although somewhat rusty in exhibitions against the College All-Stars and St. Louis Cardinals, Namath, who missed the first week of training camp, appears to be in good health and promises to be ready when the money goes on the line.

A Namath promise hasn't been taken lightly since last January, when the gimpy-legged passing ace predicted a Super Bowl victory over Baltimore's heavily favored NFL kings . . . and then directed the Jets to a startling 16-7 conquest.

But the 1968 Jets were a ravenously hungry bunch. Moreover, they escaped injuries to key men throughout the season and protected Namath's battered knees from start to finish with the best pass-blocking in the league.

Whether or not they continue to beat the injury hex, whether or not they keep the pass-rushers from dirtying Namath's white shoes and whether or not they maintain their momentum will determine how they fare in the AFL's improved Eastern Division this year.

The championship cast remains intact with few exceptions, the most notable being of defensive guard Bob Talamini, who has retired. Namath again will be throwing to a trio of top receivers—all AFL split end George Sauer, flanker Don Maynard and tight end Pete Lammons.

Matt Snell, who rambled for 130 yards in the Super Bowl, will share the ball-carrying load once more with explosive Emerson Boozer. Jim Turner, whose 34 field goals last year were the

Fatal Shooting Ends Argument

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — An argument over the price of a hamburger resulted Saturday night in the shooting death of Eddie Lee Wallace, 15, of El Dorado.

The shooting occurred at a teen-age hangout near Mt. Zion 15 miles east of here called the Soul Shack. Officers said Wallace apparently was an innocent bystander in the shooting.

The operator of the club went to his home 100 yards away, returned with a pistol and began firing after his wife got into an argument with Jethro King, 15, over the hamburger price, officers said.

Spurs Keep Hold on the League Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Dallas-Fort Worth Spurs maintained their stranglehold on the Texas League's Western Division today after clobbering Albuquerque 6-3 on 14 hits Sunday.

Roger Freed, Bob Grich and Gene Etter were the central figures in the Spurs' attack, collecting three hits each. One of Freed's hits was his 18th home run of the season.

In other games, El Paso regained a tie with Amarillo for second place in the league's Western Division with a 2-1 victory and Memphis pounded San Antonio 10-1.

El Paso starter Greg Garrett allowed only five hits before leaving with one out in the bottom of the eighth inning. Dave La Roche came on in relief and was credited with a save.

Memphis pounded San Antonio's losing pitcher Alec Distaco for six hits and eight runs in the 5 1-3 innings he pitched. The Blues finished with 12 hits in all including home run by Ken Singleton.

Allies Still Expect DMZ to Stay Calm

By ROBERT OHMAN
Associated Press Writer
DONG HA, Vietnam (AP) — Despite a rash of action along the demilitarized zone, allied commanders still expect South Vietnam's northern frontier to remain as relatively calm as it has been for the past 10 months.

They say there is no indication of increasing enemy infiltration through the six-mile-wide buffer zone nor have there been signs of North Vietnamese troops massing for any new offensive.

Intelligence officers for the South Vietnamese 1st Division say they have located only three enemy battalions with some 1,000 soldiers operating along the southern rim of the DMZ. These battalions have split up into companies or platoons "to harass us and keep an eye on us," one officer said.

American Marines just south of the zone fought hard battles Thursday and again Sunday in which 27 Americans and 138 North Vietnamese were reported killed. But Marine and South Vietnamese officers characterized these fights as attacks of opportunity and did not foresee any sustained action.

They added, however, that Quang Tri Province, which borders the DMZ, is still threatened by an estimated four to six North Vietnamese regiments—perhaps 20,000 men—stationed along the northern edge of the DMZ.

On guard against them are about 22,000 allied troops: nearly 15,000 U.S. Marines of the 3rd Marine Division who patrol from Con Thien west, 2,000 South Vietnamese troops manning the 12 miles from Con Thien to the coast, and 5,000 armored soldiers of the U.S. army's 5th Mechanized Division based at Quang Tri City as a reconnaissance and reaction force.

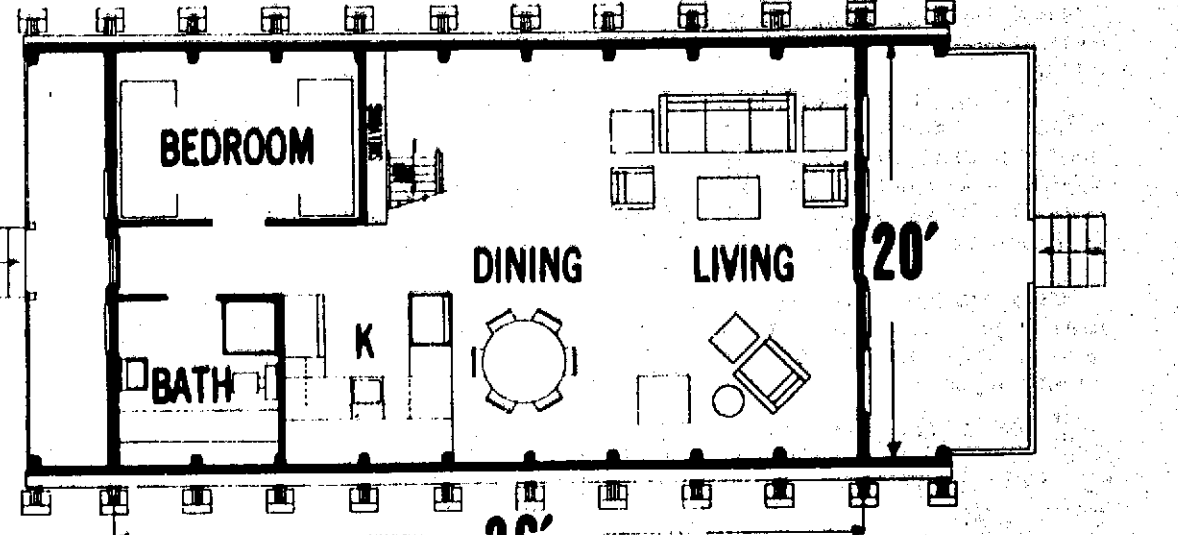

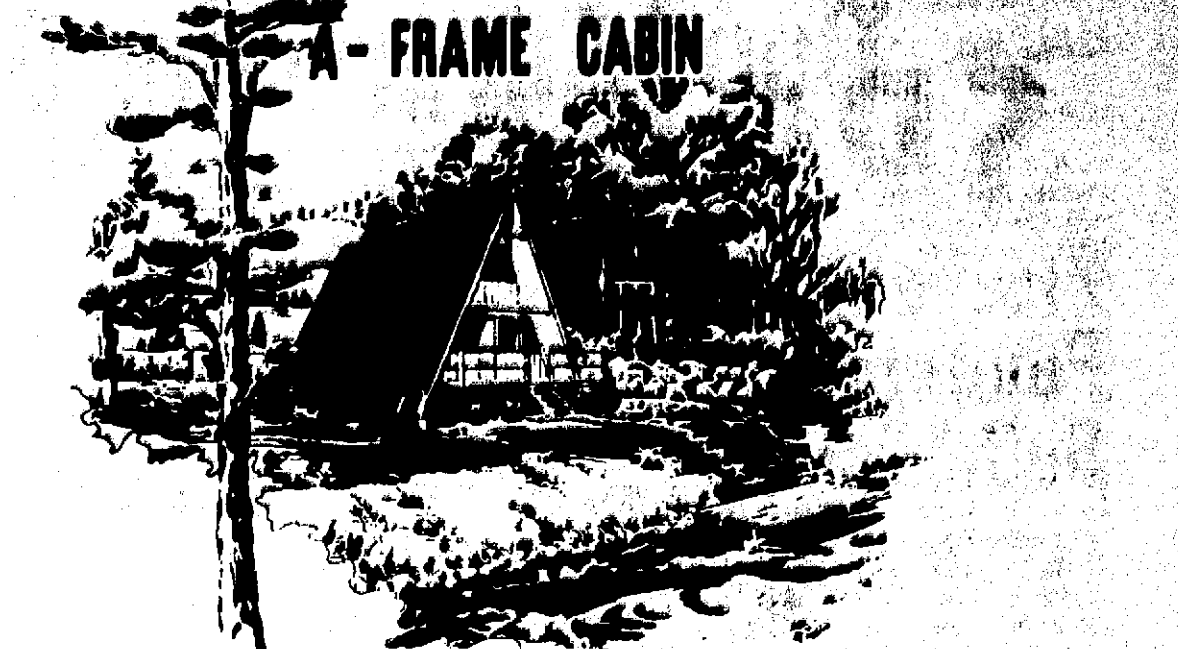

There has been speculation that American strength will be reduced, forcing a redeployment of some of the units in the four-regiment South Vietnamese 1st Division. Maj. Gen. Ngo Quang Truong, division commander, says his troops "could handle the situation easily," provided there is no more infiltration of North Vietnamese army units.

While no major assault is expected along the DMZ, intelligence officers say prisoners and captured documents indicate that the Communist command "wants to have some victories" to commemorate the anniversary Aug. 18 of the start of the revolt against French rule in 1945.

Allied units have used the current lull to push pacification and resettlement of peasants displaced by the war. Commanders say they have virtually destroyed local guerrilla units and the civilian population is more secure than at any time in recent years.

In television, two carrier waves are used—one for sound and one for sight.

A-FRAME CABIN

Plan No. 647202

Need an A-frame cabin for lakeside lot? This A-frame building provides a combined dining and living area with small "U" shaped kitchen on the ground floor. The first floor also includes a 12' x 10' bedroom and 8' x 8' bath with shower. This open type design meets the needs of lakeside living.

The second floor level in the cabin provides a large bedroom and balcony with storage facilities.

The building is constructed on concrete piers with the floor raised above grade line approximately two feet. This plan outlines the structural details needed in this type construction ranging from the concrete piers to roof decking and main structural members.

If you have a need for a plan of this type, you may obtain a copy, free of charge, from the Hempstead County Agricultural Extension office. Request Plan No. 647202.

MONEY CLIPS

by Mort Reed

Augustus Saint-Gaudens produced the third in a series of five Indian-head devices to appear on a coin of the United States. James Longacre introduced the idea with his daughter dressed in the feathered headdress of an Indian princess on the gold dollar and $3 coin of 1854, and the Indian-head cent of 1859.

This Saint-Gaudens 1907 eagle preceded the Bela Lyons Pratt quarter and half-eagle Indian-head by one year and Fraser's Indian-head nickel was the last in 1913.

While this particular design was anything but a smashing success with the public, President Theodore Roosevelt found it to his liking and lauded the sculptor and the design by claiming it to be the first really beautiful coin worthy of this country. In defending Saint-Gaudens' application of an Indian headress on a non-Indian female, Roosevelt said, "Most of the criticism is based upon the assumption that only an Indian could wear a feathered headdress, and that the head of Liberty ought to have a Phrygian cap, a Greek helmet or some classic equivalent. Now, of course, this is nonsense. There is no more reason why a feathered headdress should always be held to denote an Indian than why a Phrygian cap should always be held to denote a Phrygian. The Indian in his own way symbolizes freedom and a life of liberty. It is idle to insist that the head or figure of Liberty shall only appear in the hackneyed and conventional trappings which conventional and unoriginal minds have gradually grown to ascribe to her."

This liberal analogy did not extend to the sculptor's choice of inscriptions. Roosevelt flatly refused to accept the public demand for some reference to the Deity on our coinage and ordered the motto "In God We Trust" removed from the reverse, an act that brought forth unfavorable comment from both church pulpits and political platforms.

However, Congress won the second round after Roosevelt left office by immediately ordering the motto restored to the gold quarter-eagle, the half-eagle, the eagle and the Lincoln cent. There is a noticeable departure from normal practice in that the edge of this coin was first struck with a wire or knife edge. It is valued at roughly $2,500 in uncirculated condition and $3,500 in proof.

Opening lead—♦ Q

Oswald: "They used to talk about the perfect bridge player who never made a mistake. I have seen players who never admit making a mistake. The essence of winning at bridge or any other game must include a willingness to take chances. The so-called perfect player must wind up a loser against chance-taking experts."

Jim: "I agree to the extent that if someone tells me he just played perfectly, I ask him, 'How much did you lose?'"

Oswald: "My old friend, the late Albert Morehead, discussed this in a 1937 article that covered today's hand. I happened to be West and according to all rules to govern perfect bridge players should have opened my four of spades, the fourth best of my strongest suit."

Jim: "That lead would have given declarer three spade tricks. He would also have no trouble collecting two hearts, a diamond and three clubs and his game bonus. I see that a heart or club lead would also have given South his ninth trick."

Oswald: "No one could have criticized me for opening a spade or heart and there would be very little criticism if I had opened a club but I decided to lead my singleton queen of diamonds. My partner dropped the six. South took his king and led back the four. My partner ran off four quick diamond tricks and since I hung on to all my clubs, we wound up collecting a penalty."

Jim: "What was Morehead's comment?"

Oswald: "He pointed out that South had made a mistake and could never be a perfect player from then on!"

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The stogie, a long thin cigar, derives its name from the famed Conestoga wagon. The World Almanac says. Originally the stogie was supposed to be up to a foot in length and was made by Conestoga wagon drivers for long trips across the Allegheny Mountains. The crudely rolled tobacco came to be known as conestogies and then just stogies.

THE WELL CHILD

Preschool Checkup Is Wise Move for Child

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

In a few weeks, some 17 million children will be going to school. Unless your school provides a physical checkup for all pupils, this is a good time for you to arrange for such an examination. It is especially important that the vision and hearing be checked because any deficiency in these functions can make school a nightmare for your child and might even make a pupil with normal intelligence appear to be mentally retarded.

It is important, too, to make sure your child has had all the immunizing shots and boosters he should have. If he expects to go out for vigorous sports, a doctor's certificate may be required. In any case, you should get your doctor's O.K. before letting him participate in football, baseball, basketball or hockey.

If this will be your child's first year in school, it is essential that he be reassured that you are not trying to get rid of him and that you still love him very much but that school attendance is a part of growing up so "he can be smart like daddy."

If your child is to ride a school bus he must be taught to obey the rules designed for his safety. He should leave home in time to allow four or five minutes before the bus arrives. While waiting for the bus, he should stay back from the street and not indulge in horseplay with the other children. On the bus, loud shouting and roughhousing are out as they distract the driver. All talking should stop when the bus approaches a railroad crossing so the driver can listen for a train. Your child should keep his books and packages on his lap or on the floor under his seat—never in the aisle. He should never put his head or hand out the window. He should not tamper with the first-aid kit, emergency doors or other bus equipment and he should get off the bus quickly without crowding or pushing.

Negro Group to Follow Police

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Bobby Brown, president of Black United Youth, announced Saturday that Negro patrols would be organized to follow Little Rock policemen patrolling predominantly Negro areas of the city.

Brown said the program would be called operation Cop Watch.

He said BUU members would observe the action of police when dealing with Negroes. He said the organization would not interfere with the action of officers but would submit reports to the Little Rock city manager board.

BUU recently protested what it alleged was police brutality in the handling of some Negroes taken into custody.

Recreation—Travel

By JIM CROSSLEY

After a rainstorm, Vernon Ogilvie spends the night driving and looking for walking catfish out for roadside strolls.

Vernon, a biologist on the staff of Florida's Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, is an expert on this land-prowling menace.

His current opinion: the walking catfish, a former pet tropical fish gone wild, is more of a threat than ever.

Its habitat has increased until it encompasses West Palm Beach where Ogilvie resides. There is evidence that the species nested productively this year and he finds a new wave of juveniles.

In the fish's mobility lies its threat. Earlier reports were that it invaded land using its peculiar air-breathing apparatus in order to satisfy its voracious appetite. From the frequency of observation by the public in the spring, it appears also that the catfish uses its wriggling land locomotion to hunt out sheltered waters for spawning — thus increasing its range.

Clarias batrachus (its scientific name) can grow as long as 18 inches. It is a bulky, subduing the more valuable native fish. It is even hard to poison in a body of water because it can simply walk away. It sleeps days, is active at night.

Tennessee is worried enough for its game and fish commission to take up the subject of erecting defenses. Bob Burch of the department says Tennessee weather is probably cold enough to keep what was originally an Asian tropical fish from getting through Tennessee winters. But they're taking no chances.

One strange note. The walking catfish is a valuable beast right at this stage. Vernon Ogilvie is so busy sending the ones he captures during his night forays to other biologists who want to study them that he can't repeat an earlier test on whether the fish is tasty on the platter.

He said he fried a few early in his research and that he's sure most people would prefer the domestic catfish now being raised widely in southern commercial ponds.

Four thousand catfish farmers sold 12 million pounds of channel cats and blues last year and the crop is expected to go to 52 million pounds in 1972. Franchised chains of catfish eateries are sprouting.

The domestic catfish has its own invasion going. The United Fruit Co. accumulated brood stock and is trying to raise catfish as a farm crop in Central America.

Maybe there isn't too much danger from Florida's walking catfish. Already in this country we have a fish that, when the whim hits it, comes ashore for a stroll.

Scientists report the freshwater eel frequently makes excursions on land in moist grass for considerable distances, the purposes of which are not understood.

Big eels can be met on pond paths in the East. This is a giddy encounter not easily forgotten by the human involved though the eel still goes about its business, breeding in the ocean vastness, spreading its floating larvae and remaining a fairly good citizen (though slimy).

Facing Extinction

The black-footed ferret, once trained to hunt rabbits and to destroy vermin, is facing extinction in the United States since its main source of food, the prairie dog, has almost disappeared in the country, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Rebozo's Loan Past Due Says Banking Head

By DONALD M. ROTHBERG
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Wright Patman of the House Banking Committee urged the Small Business Administration today to demand immediate repayment of an $80,000 loan which was given friend and Florida neighbor of Charles G. (Bebe) Rebozo, Miami millionaire, over the objections of several SBA staff members.

In a prepared House speech, the Texas Democrat said the money was loaned to Rebozo's Monroe Abstract and Title Co. of Miami in 1962.

Repayment was to be in six years, on May 1, 1968. But the maturity date has since been extended twice, for two years each time, stretching the life of the loan to the maximum 10 years allowable under law.

Rebozo came to national attention last November as a friend and Florida neighbor of Richard M. Nixon. Other close Rebozo friends are former Sen.

George Smathers, D-Fla., and Thomas A. Butler, head of the Miami regional office of the SBA.

Last February, the Associated Press disclosed that Butler had chosen Rebozo to be developer of a shopping center for Cuban refugee businessmen. The project was backed by a $2.4 million SBA guarantee of full payment of rent on all available space.

It also was disclosed that Butler owns property on Fisher Island which Rebozo is trying to develop as a resort or residential area, and that the SBA official also was a charter stockholder in a bank founded by Rebozo, SBA officials in Washington cleared Butler of any impropriety.

Both the shopping center deal and Monroe Title Co. loan occurred long before Nixon became President.

Referring to Rebozo as a "preferred customer" of the SBA, Patman said, "Time and time again, the Miami millionaire has received special favors from the agency even though SBA staff members strongly questioned the concessions being made to Rebozo."

Rebozo's secretary said in Miami he was out of the country and could not be reached for comment. SBA officials at Miami said they would have no comment until they have had a chance to study Patman's speech.

Says Green Beret Killing Was Ordered

By RICHARD PYLE
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — The Vietnamese man whom eight Green Beret soldiers are accused of murdering was a Viet Cong agent and his slaying was an assigned "military mission," informed sources said today.

The sources also said that the arrest of the eight men, including the colonel commanding all Green Berets in Vietnam at the time, possibly was the outcome of a vendetta by Army officers jealous of the elite Special Forces.

One source who was in a position to know said speculation that the wrong man had been killed by mistake was erroneous.

U.S. military officials have divulged no details of the case beyond saying that the slaying occurred June 20 near the Special Forces headquarters at Nha Trang and naming the eight Americans accused of conspiracy and premeditated murder.

The civilian attorney for one of the eight men conferred for three hours today with his client and said he was confident of his innocence.

Six Children Perish in House Fire

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The bodies of six children, who died when fire destroyed a two-bedroom frame house three miles south of here Sunday morning, have been taken to Little Rock for an autopsy.

However, authorities said foul play was not suspected in the deaths of the children, who were identified as Randy Lee Ketcherside, 10, Connie Louise, 7, Aaron, 5, Sheila, 4, Dennis, 2, and Michael, 1.

Sheriff Otto Brinkman of Russellville said Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ray Ketcherside, parents of the children, escaped the blaze unharmed but were treated for shock at a local hospital.

Cause of the fire was undetermined, Brinkman said, and the investigation continued late Sunday afternoon. The fire apparently started at 4:30 a.m., the sheriff said, but the first report to law enforcement authorities came about one hour later.

The house had burned to the ground by the time firefighters and authorities arrived, Brinkman said.

Authorities disregarded an early report that an explosion occurred shortly before the house burst into flames.

The bodies were recovered from the smoldering rubble of a rear bedroom where all six of the children had slept. The bodies were burned beyond recognition, officers said.

Pope County deputy coroner Dr. Charles F. Wilkins Jr. of Russellville ordered the autopsy.

Devaluation of Franc Expected to Pressure the British Pound

By GLENN GOODEY
Associated Press Writer
LONDON (AP) — The British pound is expected to come under pressure when money markets open today for the first time since the devaluation of the franc. But British experts believed any setback to their currency would be only temporary.

In an attempt to prevent a price spiral resulting from the devaluation, the French government froze most wholesale and retail prices until Sept. 15 while it prepares a package of economic measures for a special session of the National Assembly.

Currency dealers in London, Paris, Geneva and Frankfurt predicted a weaker pound and a rush to buy West German marks. They said if there were serious speculative movements, the Belgian franc and the Danish kroner could weaken.

British money traders said that even if speculators put pressure on the pound again, the nation's economic position is sound enough to make prospects of another British devaluation very unlikely. The last devaluation of the pound was in November 1967.

British treasury officials said the French devaluation did not threaten the pound.

Help for the pound is anticipated Wednesday when Britain's July trade figures will be published. The figures have steadily improved during the past months and now are running at an estimated surplus of about $600 million. July's figures are expected to show further improvement.

In announcing the French price freeze, Finance Minister Valéry Giscard d'Estaing made clear the government would be taking steps to avoid the "price flare-up" union leaders said would result from devaluation. He warned the government would crack down on any unjustified price rises during the freeze period.

Premier Jacques Chaban-Delmas said the French National Assembly would be called into special session Sept. 15 to vote on a series of economic measures to back up devaluation. He warned that these measures would be unpleasant.

The big Gaullist majority in the assembly should insure passage of the measures. But giving the deputies the opportunity to debate them is in line with President Georges Pompidou's pledge to give the legislators a bigger role in national affairs after 11 years of Charles de Gaulle's authoritarian rule.

West German Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger met for two hours Sunday with his top ministers, and a spokesman said he reaffirmed his opposition to raising the value of the mark.

Nixon said his new approach would end what he described as the "blatant unfairness" of the present welfare system and create a stronger incentive among the poor to work.

The message to Congress contained the proposals he outlined in a television-radio address to the nation Friday night.

It included a specific request for $600 million additional funds for child care centers to aid working mothers.

Nixon said he wants to provide child care for 450,000 children of the 150,000 current welfare mothers.

Astronauts Free From Isolation

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer
SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Freed from three weeks of isolation, the Apollo 11 astronauts relaxed with their families today before plunging into a hectic round of celebrations of their historic moon-landing.

Neil A. Armstrong, Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. and Michael Collins sped straight to their homes Sunday night when released from quarantine quarters. Only hours before, doctors had said they could find no evidence of alien germs or infection from the astronauts' lunar contact.

A waiting world was ready to heap the pioneers with honors in the weeks ahead.

The whirlwind schedule starts Tuesday when Armstrong, Aldrin and Collins hold a news conference here to report on their daring mission.

That afternoon, a downtown Houston luncheon will be attended by nearly 700 space workers.

On Wednesday, the astronauts and their families fly to New York for a ticker tape parade and an appearance at the United Nations, followed in the afternoon by another parade in Chicago. The day winds up in Los Angeles at a gala state dinner with President Nixon as host.

On Saturday, they will be honored by a Houston parade followed by a Houston parade followed by a Houston parade.

2 More 'Ritualistic' Deaths in L.A. Are Similar to 5 Slayings

By LINDA DEUTSCH
Associated Press Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police pushed a manhunt today for a suspect in the bizarre killings of actress Sharon Tate and four others five miles from where a couple was found slain later in a similar style.

"There is a similarity, but whether it's the same suspect or a copycat we just don't know," said Police Sgt. Bryce Houchin.

At the scene of the second slayings, Inspector K. J. McCauley said, "I don't see any connection between this murder and the others. They're too widely removed, I just don't see any connection."

The man and woman were stabbed many times in their Hollywood home, Houchin said, the man's head wrapped in a sheet, the woman's in a nightgown. In the slayings at Miss Tate's home Saturday, one vic-

Fierce Fight Leaves 38 GIs Dead

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Thirty-eight Americans were killed and 144 wounded in fierce attacks that North Vietnamese troops along the Cambodian, Laotian and demilitarized zone frontiers Sunday, military spokesmen said today.

The toll of American war dead was the largest reported during any 24-hour period since a lull began in the fighting June 18.

U.S. military analysts indicated that the stepped up attacks could presage the fall campaign that American officers expect.

There was new apprehension along the demilitarized zone with the disclosure that North Vietnamese troops fighting the U.S. Marines there over the past four days were from a fresh regiment.

Fighting was reported near the Cambodian border northwest of Saigon, just below the central sector of the demilitarized zone, on two sides of Hamburger Hill beside the Laotian border, and in the populous coastal lowlands south of Da Nang.

Three more American helicopters were shot down, two during a fight 28 miles southeast of Da Nang and the third 50 miles west of Da Nang. Two crewmen were killed and two were wounded.

U.S. headquarters also reported 15 enemy rocket and mortar attacks from 8 a.m. Sunday to 8 a.m. Monday, 11 of them against U.S. troops or bases. Seven Americans were killed and 36 wounded.

The number of rocket and mortar attacks were nearly double the daily average of about two a day and was up by five from the daily average of 10 last week.

The U.S. Command also disclosed that the attacks on the Marines below the DMZ last Thursday and again Sunday were made by troops of the 9th Regiment of the North Vietnamese 304th Division. It was the first reported appearance of the regiment in South Vietnam since the siege of Khe Sanh last year.

Nineteen U.S. Marines were killed and 80 wounded when more than 250 North Vietnamese troops attacked two of their night bivouacs astride infiltration routes two miles south of the central DMZ. Enemy losses were put at 36 killed.

Some of the Marines reported that during the fighting they saw women nurses treating wounded soldiers, but there were no reports of any women being killed or captured.

Throughout Sunday night, the Marine positions received light mortar and sniper fire on their See FIERCE FIGHT (on page two)

Meet Here Aug. 15 to Air Commercial Fishing in Millwood Reservoir

LITTLE ROCK — Discussion on opening Millwood Reservoir to commercial fishing will be held during a public meeting at 8 p.m. Aug. 15 at the county courthouse in Hope.

The meeting, which is open to the public, is aimed at gathering information relative to a petition presented to the Arkansas Game and Fish that the lake be opened to commercial fishing on Sept. 1 instead of the usual opening date of Oct. 1.

Proponents of the proposal, as well as those opposing this proposal, are asked to be present at the hearing to express their views. These opinions may be either oral or written.

Information gained from the meeting will be considered later by the Commission's Fisheries Division staff in formulating recommendations that will be considered by the Commission during a business session.

Judge Arnold to Open Court Here Aug. 18

Circuit Court will convene Monday, August 18 with Judge William Arnold III presiding. Pleas, changes, motions, hearings and all pre-trial matters in criminal cases are set first with criminal sentencing to follow; one civil jury case is set for pre-trial conference; six civil non-jury cases are set for trial.

Twenty-one criminal cases are set for trial beginning Wednesday August 20. Jurors who are to report on Wednesday will be notified by the Sheriff.

Those members of the Jury panel who are not notified by the Sheriff are not required to report.

State Happy With Nixon Welfare Plan

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Welfare Commissioner Ler Blaylock has praised President Nixon's proposal for revamping the nation's welfare program.

Although not by design, Blaylock said, Nixon's proposal "will amount to favored treatment for the state of Arkansas because our payments to families with dependent children are so low."

Blaylock called the proposal "probably the best suggestion we've heard for trying to get out of an almost impossible welfare problem."

Meanwhile, at Dallas the regional office of the federal welfare department said Saturday that Arkansas would save $6.2 million annually in welfare costs if Congress approves the President's program.

James H. Bond, director of the regional office, said the proposal to share revenue with local governments would mean $9.5 million to Arkansas.

Spring Hill Schools Start on Aug. 29

All pupils in the Spring Hill schools will register on August 29, beginning at 8:15. Registration should be completed and students returned home by noon on that day.

The first full day of school will be Tuesday, September 2. Lunches will be served on this day. Prices of school lunches this year will be 30¢; extra milk will be 4¢ half-pint or glass, Supt. Oris Thornton announced.

Pupils entering the first grade are required by school laws to have a birth certificate, be six years of age on or before October 1, and have a successful vaccination for smallpox; also, be immunized from poliomyelitis, diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough, and red measles as evidenced by a certificate of a licensed physician or a public same.

All bus routes will be the same as last year. High school students are asked to buy their textbooks during the week of 25-29th of August. There will be a meeting of the elementary faculty on Tuesday, August 26th at 8:30 A.M., and a meeting of the High School faculty on Wednesday, August 27th at 8:30 A.M.
